We would appreciate your return review on or before 12 November 2014.

If you have problem accessing the link, find attached the manuscript and referee form for your review, you can also provide corrections with track changes on the manuscript itself.

Reviewers should not use the knowledge of the work, phrases or images to further their own interests.

Reviewers should observe confidential treatment of unpublished manuscripts. Sharing, discussing with other colleagues, and distributing the material under review is unethical and against the policy of the journal.

You may click this link for more reviewers information: <http://smj.psmmc.med.sa/index.php/smj/information/librarians>

As peer review is a purely voluntary process, thus the journal does not pay the scientist for the work of peer reviewing.

Every year the journal publishes all reviewers who participated in the peer review process of the journal. Certificates of participation are given upon request.

For Reviewers from the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, The Saudi Council for Health Specialties approved the awarding of CME credits to peer reviewers of ALL medical journals in the Kingdom. The Council will award 1 CME credit for each manuscript reviewed with a maximum of 5 credits per year.

If you have further queries regarding the process of reviewing, please let us know.

We look forward to hear from you.

In-case you will be reviewing online, please let me know when it's done since the system will not be able to notify me by the time you submit your review.
