Dear Dr. Fatih Büyükcaml,

We hope you are doing great in your endeavours.

Thank you for accepting to serve the Open Journal of Trauma as an Editorial board member.

We have received your credential details and those will be updated online shortly.

You are selected as an Editorial board member for this journal. We request you to provide details of the intellectuals in your network who are interested in serving as editorial board members.

Further, we also request you to contribute an article for the upcoming issue of the journal. We offer appealing discounts for our editors on processing and publication charges.

We look forward for a long-term professional relationship.

Best regards,

Sammer T
